Leadership Is Influence

What is Leadership?

Leadership is the process of influencing people and providing an environment for them to achieve team or organizational objectives.

The “Key” Ingredients

VISION + MEMBERS + INFLUENCE = LEADERSHIP

Who is a Leader?

A leader is a person who has a vision, a drive and a commitment to achieve that vision, and the skills to make it happen.

Leadership Styles

- A leadership style is a leader's method of providing direction, implementing plans, and motivating people
 - Various authors have proposed identifying many different leadership styles as exhibited by leaders in the political, business or other fields

Common Leadership Styles

What's your Focus as a Leader?

Looking to the Future

Managing your Post

- Asset Management: Acquires and administers human, material, and information resources to accomplish the mission
 - Conflict Resolution: Resolve individual and organizational differences to achieve a unified effort both internal and external to the team
 - Talent Management: Cultivate junior personnel and recognizes who can serve in positions of greater responsibility to grow future officers and leaders

Develop Partnerships towards a Common Goal

- Communication: Conveys and describes facts or ideas in a clear, logical, and comprehensive manner both orally and in writing
 - Collaboration: Develops and fosters social networks and coalitions
 - Influence/Negotiating: Explores and articulates alternatives to gain support and acceptance for ideas, obtain resources, and elicit commitment and/or agreement
 - Cultural Awareness: Understands cultures beyond own national and organizational boundaries and is able to interact and lead in interagency, national, international, and inter-organizational domains
